

WITNESS SWORN

q identify yourself.

a Jean Day.

q did you know Marie Lannuzzi?

a she is my sister.

q when you found out that Marie had been killed did you at some point in time see David Doyle?

a Me and my mother went to see David. She heard it over work. She came to my house because Marie would have been there.

q was Marie missing?

a Marie went to a wedding on Saturday. This was Monday morning. We heard from her last Saturday night.

q when did you last hear from Marie?

a My mother heard from her 9 o'clock last time Saturday night; it was my father's birthday.

q are you sure of the time?

a My mother is sure of the time. She called twice.

q what about the conversation?

a She told my mother she was sleeping over her friend's house Christine and she would see my father tomorrow because it would be his birthday.

q that was the last phone call.

a yes.

q that was the last anybody heard from her?

a from Marie personally.

q you went to David Doyle's house.

a At 6:45 in the morning my mother came to my house. She told me what she heard. She did not know where Marie lived. I took over Marie and Dave's old apartment. They had moved to Jeffrey. I knew where it was. We went there

q what time was this?

a Just about 1:30 Sunday afternoon because I went to Kathy's house to see if she was there to see if anybody heard from her. I said I have not heard from her, I said it is strange you are calling asking about her if she went to stay at a friend's house.

q this was Sunday 1:30 in the afternoon.

a yes he talked to me personally.

q did you have more conversation?

a He said last time I saw her was the wedding and I was wondering if any of you saw her, I said we had not.

q her body was found at 4 o'clock the same Sunday.

a yes.

q when did you next see him?

a Monday morning the next time when we went to his apartment.

q tell us about it.

a We went up there his back was to me. I tapped him on the shoulder. I said where is my sister please tell me you heard from her. Me and my mother tried talking to him. He did not show no emotion. He went to the second floor to brush his teeth while my mother and I were still talking.

q you were frank.

a I was 8 1/2 months pregnant. He still showed nothing never answered any of our questions. He went to brush his teeth. His mother had to call him to come back up.

q what happened then?

a We called my father at work to meet us at the house. We said to Dave you better come with us. We were sure as far as the description over the radio but we still did not know if it was Marie that was found.

a We were at my mother's house for the whole day.

q was he there too?

a for the most part of the day.

q did you notice scratches on his hands?

a I did. I noticed them because as my father talked to him his hands were under his legs.

q when did your father talk to him?

a 11 in the morning.

q Monday 11 a.m.

a Just about, my father asked him to please say it was not Marie. He never answered any of us. He stared off into space the whole time.

q he was sitting on his hands.

q what did you see?

a he was sitting on his hands then I noticed the scratches when he got off the chair.

q describe the scratches.

a across the top of his hands.

q describe them for us.

a pretty good gouges.

q they were visible from where you were.

a yes.

q did Marie have fingernails?

a very long fingernails.

q did you have further conversation with David Doyle?

a at that point not at that day.

q do you know whether he had an argument or dispute with Marie during the wedding?

a My understanding was they had an argument at the wedding. Marie went home by herself. Dave had split his pants. Marie went on to the people's house. David went home because he split his pants.

q anything else you want to add?

a no.

q do you know what Marie was wearing?

a A Danskin body shirt and skirt with a black scarf around her neck.

q is that what she was wearing when the body was found?

q what was unusual?

a What she did not have on. She wore to the wedding 2 pieces with tights underneath. She had seams up the tights. She called me what do you think I should wear. When she was found she was found without the nylons that go under the body shirt and without shoes and her pocketbook.

jq when you went to pick up her possessions did you see anything on the stairs?

a Tuesday morning....Monday my parents went to make arrangements. Tuesday morning Kathy and I went first of all I did not notice anything at that time. Tony, myself and the other brother-in-law went over the same day. We needed something for her to wear. My brother-in-law Gary said look at this. We all looked Gary said that is a drop of blood. It was on wood stairs. They were having the house done over. The steps were plain wood. They were going to have them carpeted.

q what stairs?

a first flight going up I am almost positive it was the third step.

q did anybody tell the police about it?

a I think I told them not during the wake or funeral.

jq just one drop?

a yes.

q how big with your fingernail?

a (indicating).

q size of a dime?

a yes.

jq if your sister did not show up at his apartment for a couple of days he never inquired before.

a It was not unusual for her to spend a couple of days at a friend's house. He would never call and ask about her. I was close to them. Dave was the last one on my mind but I found that phone call unusual.

jq do you know any problems she had with Dave prior to the wedding?

a I believe they were on the verge of breaking up. She would not let go.

I was in New York for a couple of weeks. She called me told me they got in an argument he hit her tried to grab her by the neck.

q did she go to somebody's house?

a She went to Ann Marie's house.

jq were you a confident of hers?

a we spent a lot of time together.

jq did she confide in you when she was having problems with David?

ayes.

jq was he known to have a violent temper where he would hit your sister?

a yes.

jq were the scratches on his hand fresh?

a they were fresh, they were done within a couple of days.

jq scratches on both hands?

a both hands.

jq how was the family notified it was your sister that was found?

a ll Monday morning a detective from Saugus came to our house talked to my father. I went over, he asked did she have a wedding ring on and a scar on her left knee then we realized it was Marie.

jq was anybody else notified other than the family?

jq in the apartment Monday did you see boxes?

a her clothes were all packed.

q what time was that?

a I would say about 6:45, it had to be morning.

q her clothes were packed then?

jq when you went to ask him if he knew where she was?

a nq that was the second time we went to get a dress, then I noticed everything was packed, this was Tuesday morning.
