

WITNESS SWORN

q identify yourself.

a Benjamin Puzzo.

q where do you live?

a 37 White St. East Boston.

q did you know Marie Iannuzzi?

a yes.

q what was her relation to you?

a my niece.

q did you have occasion to observe David Doyle after her body was found?

a the first day of the wake.

q do you remember the day of the week that was?

a I could not tell you Monday they found her, most likely it was Wednesday.

q Tuesday or Wednesday?

a yes.

q where did you first see him?

a at the Lagoon Undertaker Parlor.

q what did you observe about his person?

a He came to shake hands with me, I would not shake hands his hands were full of scratches.

q you could see them.

a Yes they were terrible, it was like raw beef wide type scratches they were scabbed up oozy type things you don't put your hands on something like that. Everything he put his hands on the coffin they were right there. (indicating) q you are indicating he folded his arms.

a yes so nobody would see his hands.

q where did you see him do that?

a the first and second day of the wake.

q did you have conversation with him?

a no he said hello I saw his hands and walked away.

q did you notice anything about his face?

a (I thought he was pretty well high on something) jq what kind of work did he do if he did anything, his employment?

a I think he was a baggage handler at the airport. He had a lot of jobs.

I only knew him because he went with my niece.

jq did he own a car?

a I don't think so there was cars in the family His father and mother had a car
He would pick her up and drop her off before they were living together then they were living together for a while.

jq did your niece have long fingernails?

a yes always manicured had them long.

jq would a dog do that?

a I have 2 dogs and cats they were too wide I have been clawed by the cats it is thin. These looked like they were dug and pulled(indicating).

q from your wrist to your fingers.

a I could see they were pulled a cat will hit you with 2 claws and the same with a dog that was like 4 like all his fingers and they were deep.

jq Any notice on the body damage to her fingernails that will be brought out?

How was he dressed at the wake?

a Well dressed blue suit; he looked very good but he was out of it. He did not know where he was in my estimation.

jq did he show any emotion at all?

a he was crying.

q you saw him crying.

a I saw tears in his eyes.

q when was this?

a He was standing by the coffin, why I know this I stood by the coffin I was close to them, I lived next door I was the first one by the coffin. He put one rose in the coffin and a note that was rolled and a ribbon tied around it. He put it in the coffin. He came to me. I refused to shake hands He moved to the other end of the coffin. We did not know what he was going to do. We moved him out of there. The second night of the wake he was so bad what I mean he was so spaced out his mother took him out.

jq did he have tears in his eyes?

a he had water in his eyes.

jq that note that was rolled and tied with the ribbon did that remain in the coffin was it taken out?

a I made a suggestion to take it out the next day it was not there. He may have taken it out it was supposed to be a love letter to her.

q did anybody ever read it?

a no.

jq do you know who might have taken it out?

a I saw him go to the coffin and pound it. The undertaker got mad at him said stay away from the coffin. He did not want her touched. The rose was still there.

jq did he help with the arrangements?

a nq he did not even show up for the funeral.

jq or offer money to the parents?

a nothing at all.
