

you fucked up my life.

I need my friends so badly... but I can't tell them. They don't need the burden.

I wonder what'll happen, who am I gonna live with?

ugh

how the fuck am I supposed to concentrate w/ all this shit going on? I can't focus for shit.

I really need to find someone who can help me here. I'm so desperate.

The kids are not alright.

I guess I'm not really that shocked.
