

List of Purchases: (Item/Cost (only if we know it)/☺ or ☹)

1. TV Cable/ ☹

I think we should get a TV cable because then we will be able to watch TV when we want and Mom won't be able to complain at us. If we are to find the other TV cables we should not get this.

2. Lock Picking Set/ ☹

This would come in handy for so many things. Obviously there is the movie cabinet and who knows what else there will be. If we can find a cheap one I think we should get it even if we find some of the keys.

3. Polaroid Camera/ ☹

We could take pictures of us fighting with Mom and use them against her later when she says she never fights us. Obviously she would not take a regular camera to get pictures developed of her being a bitch, that is why it needs to be a Polaroid. It would have to be a good one that takes bigger pictures and not the little ones that use sticky film.

4. Tape Recorder/ ☺

I know we already have tape recorders, but they often don't allow for much to be heard. I think we should start to tape record our family meetings. That way, we can keep everything Mom says on separate labeled tapes. We can hide the tapes away and use them against her later. If she decides to not let us tape record the meetings, we should refuse to speak. After all, why would she be afraid of us recording her if she will only tell us the truth?

Plan 1

Goal: To get Daddy

Plan: We kiss Dad's butt and do everything he says and nothing Mom says. That way, everything will get accomplished and Mom will still be upset because we will not respond to her. She will also be forced to give us back privileges.

Plan 2

Goal: To get Mom's car keys

Plan: We wake up at 2:00 AM and unlock Mom's door with our key. Then, I will stand watch at the door. Audrey will go into the bathroom and find the keys. We will use flashlights instead of real light. If Mom wakes up, I will say I picked the lock because I wanted the cable on Mom's TV. If not and Audrey finds the key, we will go downstairs and unlock the cabinets. We will take all we want from the cabinets. We will relock the cabinets. Then Audrey and I will return upstairs and I will wait by the door again while Audrey returns the key to its original spot.

Results: We accomplished this plan successfully
